 - UOCAVA, FVAP and You;
 - The Absentee Voting Process;
 - The Role of the Civilian Voting Assistance Officer;
 - Available Resources;

Your Vote Counts

During the 2012 election cycle, a number of important offices and items will go before the voters

- 33 United States Senators
- All Members of the U.S. House of Representatives
- 13 State and Territorial Governors
- State and Local Offices

Your Vote Counts

Recent Elections Potentially Decided by UOCAVA Voters:

UOCAVA, FVAP, and You

- The Director, Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP), administers the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) on behalf of the Secretary of Defense.
- UOCAVA requires each Federal department and agency with personnel covered by the Act to have a voting assistance program.
- The FVAP biennial Voting Action Plan and Department of Defense Directive 1000.4 establish policy and guidelines to assist you in carrying out an effective voting assistance program.
- Your job as a VAO is to help to ensure that citizens understand their voting rights and how to register and vote absentee under UOCAVA.

UOCAVA, FVAP, and You

- UOCAVA requires States and territories to allow citizens covered under the Act to register and vote absentee for Federal offices.
- States and territories have their own laws that allow UOCAVA citizens to vote in State and local elections.
- U.S. citizens allowed to vote under UOCAVA include:
 - Members of the U.S. Uniformed Services (on active duty) and Merchant Marine;
 - Their family members.
 - U.S. citizens residing outside the U.S.
- UOCAVA covers more than six million potential voters worldwide.

UOCAVA, FVAP, and You

The goals of the FVAP and VAOs worldwide are:

- Informing and educating U.S. citizens worldwide of their right to vote;
- Fostering voting participation;
- Protecting the integrity of, and enhancing, the electoral process at the Federal, State, and local levels, and;
- Promoting effectiveness and efficiency in the administration of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA).

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Voting Requirements:

- A voter must be a U.S. citizen, and;
- At least 18 years old on Election Day in order to vote (some States permit a 17-year old to vote in primary election if he or she will be 18 by the date of the general election).

Voting by Absentee Ballot

The Voting Process:

- The absentee voting process permits citizens covered by UOCAVA, who will be away from their local polling places on Election Day, to register, request a ballot, and vote through the mail (or an alternative method if allowed by the State).
- In order to receive a ballot in a timely manner, it is very important that citizens keep their local election officials informed of address changes.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

The Absentee Voting Process

Step 1: Complete the FPCA to register and request your absentee ballot from your election official

Step 2: Election official approves your FPCA and sends you a blank absentee ballot

Step 3: Complete the FWAB to ensure that your vote is received in time to be counted

Step 4: Complete the Absentee Ballot and return it to your election official

Step 5: Your vote is counted.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

The Federal Post Card Application:

- The Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) is a postage-paid postcard for use by absentee voters covered under UOCAVA and is available through service distribution channels;
- The FPCA is also available for free at www.fvap.gov;
- Use the Voting Assistance Guide to find voting procedures for all States and territories, including:
 - Registration and ballot request deadlines;
 - State ballot mail out timeframes;
 - Ballot return deadlines;
 - Electronic transmission alternatives.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

The Federal Post Card Application:

- The FPCA serves as a valid request for absentee voter registration and/or absentee ballot request, regardless of whether the sender was registered prior to submitting the FPCA.
- FVAP recommends that each citizen submit an FPCA to his or her State of legal residence in January of each year and each time there is a change in the citizen's mailing address and before each election held in their State.

Block 3: My Voting Residence

- The information that Jane enters here will determine which ballot she will be sent.
- Note: never use a post office box.
- Jane thinks that her voting residence is in California, but she has asked you for help in making sure.
- The following slides will provide some general guidelines on this topic and discuss where Jane is able to vote.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Voting Residence:

- Each voter must have a legal residence address in a state or territory to vote in U.S. elections.
- Your right to vote in your State and determination of your voting precinct depend on the physical location of your residence while you were in the State.
- Final determinations on issues of voting residence are made by the local election officials.
- Voters should provide as much information as possible on the FPCA to help ensure successful registration and ballot request.
- Always check with legal counsel if you have questions about legal residence.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Voting Residence: Overseas Citizens

- A citizen outside the United States (not affiliated with the federal government) can vote in the state or territory where he or she last resided immediately prior to departing the United States even if many years have elapsed, and the voter maintains no residence in the state or territory, and the voter's intent to return to that state or territory may not be certain.
- As for Jane, since California is where she had her last legal residence before departing for England, California is where she will vote absentee.

CHECK WITH YOUR LEGAL COUNSEL IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT LEGAL RESIDENCY!

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Completing the FPCA:

Block 4: Where to Send My Voting Materials

- Since Jane is renting a home in England, she enters her mailing address at that location (section 4a).
- You remind Jane to notify her local election official ASAP if/when she has an address change.
- Jane can check the VAG to see if her state permits faxing or emailing of the ballot.

4. WHERE TO SEND MY VOTING MATERIALS
a. MY CURRENT ADDRESS (Where I live now) (Required)	b. MY FORWARDING ADDRESS (NOTE: Complete 4b. only if you do not want your ballot mailed to the address in Block 4a.)

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Completing the FPCA:

Block 4: Where to Send My Voting Materials

- Block 4(b) of the FPCA includes a section that a voter can use to enter a forwarding address (section 4b).
- For example, Jane's co-worker Joanne is working temporarily in a rural part of Mexico that has unreliable mail service.
- Joanne enters her current address in Mexico, but also provides a forwarding address to her company's El Paso Texas office.
- When Joanne's ballot arrives at the El Paso office, a corporate or private courier service will deliver the ballot to Joanne in Mexico.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Completing the FPCA:

Block 5: My Political Party Preference

- Political party preference is required in most states to participate in partisan primary elections.
- In a partisan primary election, candidates from a political party are chosen to represent that party in a subsequent general election.
- After checking her state's requirements in the VAG, Jane decides to enter her political party preference.
- Note that even if Jane did not enter party preference, she would still receive the November general election ballot.

5. MY POLITICAL PARTY PREFERENCE (Optional, but may be required by states to register to vote in primary elections):

A	b	c	d	e	f		P	a	r	t	y
---	---	---	---	---	---	--	---	---	---	---	---	--	--	--	--	--	--

Completing the FPCA:

Block 6: Additional Information

- Provide any additional information in this box that may assist your Local Election Official with processing your form.
- Your State also may require additional language be included in this box.

6. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION (Designate the period for which you want to receive ballots - see instructions for Block 6, paragraph (3). Consult the Voting Assistance Guide for other specific state instructions.)

Last date lived in California: December 2009.

I cannot vote by mail during the normal vote-by-mail period due to military or other contingencies that preclude normal mail delivery. I will be working overseas in London. I request a special absentee ballot.

Completing the FPCA:

Block 7: Affirmation

- After reading the affirmation, Jane signs and dates the application.
- You remind Jane that by signing the FPCA, she is verifying her information under the penalty of perjury.

7. AFFIRMATION (Required)

I swear or affirm, under penalty of perjury, that:

1. I am a member of the Uniformed Services or merchant marine on active duty or an eligible spouse or dependent of such a member, or a U.S. citizen temporarily residing outside the U.S., or other U.S. citizen residing outside the U.S., and
2. I am a U.S. citizen, at least 18 years of age (or will be by the day of the election), eligible to vote in the requested jurisdiction, and
3. I have not been convicted of a felony or other disqualifying offense or been adjudicated mentally incompetent, or if so, my voting rights have been reinstated, and
4. I am not registering, requesting a ballot, or voting in any other jurisdiction in the U.S., and
5. My signature and date below indicate when I completed this document, and
6. The information on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that a material misstatement of fact in completion of this document may constitute grounds for conviction of perjury.

Jane is now ready to mail her FPCA:

- First, she checks her state's requirements in the VAG to make sure she complies with any/all state deadlines.
- Next, she looks in her state's section of the VAG for the mailing address of her local election official.
- She enters the complete address of the local election official on the FPCA mailing envelope.
 - If she mails her FPCA through the U.S. Post Office (including APO/FPO) or diplomatic pouch, she should not write "USA" in the address line of the mailing envelope, as this could cause delay.
 - If Jane was using a foreign country's postal service, she would have to apply local postage, and she should write "USA" in the address line of the mailing envelope.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

How to Send It:

- Cardstock version of the FPCA is postage-paid in the US Mails.
 - U.S. Postal Service
 - Military Postal Service
 - State Department Pouch Mail
- Online version must be placed in an envelope and postage is not automatically paid.
 - Postage Paid envelope template available at <http://www.fvap.gov/resources/media/returnenvelope.pdf>

Voting by Absentee Ballot

- When the local election official receives Jane's FPCA he/she will process the form and send the ballot to Jane's mailing address, provided that Jane meets the state residency requirements and his FPCA was fully completed.
- Jane is encouraged to call, fax, or email her local election official to verify that her application was processed.
- Jane should receive her regular state absentee ballot from the local election official in time for her to vote and return the ballot by the state's deadline for counting.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Top Reasons why an FPCA Cannot be Processed:

- Inadequate or No Legal Voting Residence Address
- Inadequate or Illegible Current Mailing Address
- Illegible Writing
- Applying to the Wrong Jurisdiction
- Failure to Indicate Party Preference (for Primary Elections)
- Form not signed and/or dated
- Received too late
- Form not completed
- Envelope lacks proper postage

Consequences of Failure

YOU MAY BE UNABLE TO SUCCESFULLY RECEIVE
AND CAST YOUR BALLOT

Voting by Absentee Ballot

The Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot:

- Occasionally, even though a UOCAVA voter has submitted a complete and timely FPCA, he/she may not receive the ballot in time to return it by the State's deadline.
- In situations like this, UOCAVA citizens may use the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot (FWAB).
- The FWAB is a ballot that can be used by UOCAVA citizens in all general elections for Federal offices.
- The FWAB is pre-positioned at embassies and consulates throughout the world and available online at www.fvap.gov.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

The Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot:

- You can submit the FWAB at any time, and multiple times (though only one will be counted).
- In most cases you can only use the FWAB to vote for Federal offices in general elections.
- Some States have expanded the use of the FWAB to include:
 - Voting in primary, run-off, and special elections;
 - Voting for offices other than Federal offices;
 - Use as a registration and ballot request.
- You should still return your regular State ballot.
- Submit the FWAB no later than 30 days before the election.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

- Jane looks in her State's section of the VAG for the mailing address of her local election official.
- She enters the complete address for the local election official on the FWAB mailing envelope.
 - If she is mailing her FWAB through the U.S. Post Office (including APO/FPO), she should not write "USA" in the address line of the mailing envelope, as this could cause delay.
 - If Jane was using a foreign country's postal service, she would have to apply local postage, and she should write "USA" in the address line of the mailing envelope.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

- Next, Jane enters her mailing address in the upper left corner of the envelope – not her legal voting residence address.
- You remind Jane that before mailing, she needs to review the voter checklist that is provided on the mailing envelope.
- Notify Jane that, if possible, she should ask the mail clerk to hand stamp the FWAB envelope for proof of timely mailing.
- Finally, Jane places the FWAB in the mail.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

- Two days after mailing the FWAB, Jane receives her regular State absentee ballot. You advise Jane that she should vote and return the ballot immediately.
- The regular ballot must be signed, dated, and postmarked by the day of the election.
- If the regular ballot arrives by the deadline for receipt of absentee ballots, the State will count the regular ballot instead of the FWAB.
- Jane should return her regular ballot regardless of its receipt date because her State may allow late counting of these ballots from overseas citizens.
